

CONSTRUCTION

BUILDING PROJECT PROFITABILITY

Construction contractors require significant management oversight to monitor project profitability. We provide tools, procedures, and technical guidance for proactive job costing, and have extensive experience presenting financial statements, projections, and detailed analysis to banks and bonding companies.

CRR can provide the financial resources essential to the successful operation of your construction company, including:

- Accounting + Attest
- CFO Level Consulting
- Income Tax Provision
- Multi State Taxation
- New Market Tax Credits
- Regulatory Compliance
